

V-ART PRIVACY POLICY

OVERVIEW

The privacy of your personal information is important to V-Art Corp. Therefore, this Privacy Policy has been developed by the V-ART Site Administration specifically for its users.

This Personal Data Privacy Policy (hereinafter referred to as the "Privacy Policy") applies to all information that the www.v-art.digital website and the V-ART application (hereinafter referred to as the "Site or Application") may receive about the User while using the Site and its products.

This Privacy Policy will help you better understand how we collect, use, and share your personal information. If we change our privacy policy, we may update this privacy policy. We encourage you to check and review any updates regularly.

By using the Site, you acknowledge that V-ART will use your information in the US, EU, and any other country where V-ART operates. Please be aware that privacy laws and standards in some countries, including the authorities' rights to access your personal information, may differ from those in the country in which you reside.

DEFINITION OF TERMS

The following terms are used in this Privacy Policy:

Site Administration – authorized employees who manage the Site, acting on behalf of "V-Art Corp.", organizing and (or) carrying out the processing of personal data, as well as determining the purposes of the processing of personal data, the composition of personal data to be processed, the actions (operations) performed with personal data.

Personal data means any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person. An identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an email, location data, telephone number, or more factors specific to that natural person.

Processing means any operation or set of operations that are performed on personal data or on sets of personal data, whether by automated means, such as collection, recording, organization, structuring, storage, adaptation or alteration, retrieval, consultation, use, disclosure by transmission, dissemination or otherwise making available, alignment or combination, restriction, erasure, or destruction.

Confidentiality of personal data is a mandatory requirement for the Site Administration or for other persons who have access to personal data to prevent their dissemination without the consent of the personal data subject or the presence of other legal grounds.

The User – is a person who has access to and uses the V-Art through the Internet.

Cookies – a small piece of data sent by the web server and stored on the User's computer that the web client or web browser sends to the web server each time in the HTTP request when they try to open the page of the corresponding site.

We use several cookies on the website, including strictly necessary, performance, advertising, and social media or content cookies. Cookies improve your browsing experience by allowing the website to remember your actions and preferences (such as login and region selection). This means you don't have to re-enter this information each time you return to the site or browse from one page to another. Cookies also provide information on how people use the website, for instance, whether it's their first time visiting or if they are frequent visitors.

IP address – a unique network address of a node in a computer network built on the IP protocol.

1. ACCEPTANCE OF PRIVACY POLICY

1.1. When you use our mobile application and website, as the case may be (the "App"/ the "Website") and, more generally, use any of our services (the "Services", which include the App and website), we appreciate that you are trusting us with your personal information. We take your privacy very seriously. In this privacy notice, we seek to explain to you in the clearest way possible what information we collect, how we use it, and what rights you have relates to it. We hope you take some time to read through it carefully, as it is important. If there are any terms in this privacy notice that you do not agree with, please discontinue use of our Services immediately.

1.2. This privacy notice applies to all information collected through our Services (which, as described above, includes our App and website), as well as any related services, sales, marketing, or events. Please read this privacy notice carefully, as it will help you understand what we do with the information that we collect.

1.3. We need to process your personal information to manage our business and provide you with services. By accepting our Terms of Use, you acknowledge that you have read and understood this Policy, including how and why we use your information. If you do not want us to collect or process your personal information in the ways described in this Policy, you must not use the V-art services.

1.4. Using the services, you acknowledge that V-art will use your information where we operate. We will take steps to ensure that your personal information continues to receive adequate protection.

1.5. This Privacy Policy applies only to the V-art. The administration of the V-art does not control and does not bear responsibility for the websites of third parties with links available on the Site for the User.

2. WE COLLECT YOUR INFORMATION

2.1. We collect personal information that you voluntarily provide to us when you register on the App and Website, express an interest in obtaining information about us or our products and Services, when participating in activities on the App and Website, or otherwise when you contact us.

2.2. The personal information that we collect depends on the context of your interactions with us and the App and Website, the choices you make, and the products and features you use. The personal information we collect may include the following:

Personal Information Provided by You. We collect names; phone numbers; email addresses; job titles; usernames; passwords; billing addresses; and other similar information.

Social Media Login Data. We may provide you with the option to register with us using your existing social media account details, like your Facebook, Twitter, or other social media account.

2.3. All personal information that you provide to us must be true, complete, and accurate, and you must notify us of any changes to such personal information.

2.4. We automatically collect certain information when you visit, use or navigate the App and Website. This information does not reveal your specific identity (like your name or contact information) but may include device and usage information, such as your IP address, browser and device characteristics, operating system, language preferences, referring URLs, device name, country, location, information about whom and when you use our App and Website and other technical information. This information is primarily needed to maintain the security and operation of our App and Website, and for our internal analytics and reporting purposes.

2.5. Like many businesses, we also collect information through cookies and similar technologies. The information we collect includes:

Log and Usage Data. Log and usage data are service-related, diagnostic usage, and performance information our servers automatically collect when you access or use our App and Website and which we record in log files. Depending on how you interact with us, this log data may include your IP address, device information, browser type, and settings, and information about your activity in the App and Website (such as the date/time stamps associated with your usage, pages, and files viewed, searches and other actions you take such as which features you use), device event information (such as system activity, error reports (sometimes called 'crash dumps') and hardware settings).

Device Data. We collect device data such as information about your computer, phone, tablet, or other devices you use to access the App and Website. Depending on the device used, this device data may include information such as your IP address (or proxy server), device application identification numbers, location, browser type, hardware model Internet service provider and/or mobile carrier, and operating system configuration information.

Location Data. We collect information data such as information about your device's location, which can be either precise or imprecise. How much information we collect depends on the type of settings of the device you use to access the App and Website. For example, we may use GPS and other technologies to collect geolocation data that tells us your current location (based on your IP address). You can opt-out of allowing us to collect this information either by refusing access to the information or by disabling your Locations settings on your device. Note, however, that if you choose to opt-out, you may not be able to use certain aspects of the Services.

2.5. If you use our App and Website, we also collect the following information:

Mobile Device Data. We automatically collect device information (such as your mobile device ID, model, and manufacturer), operating system, version information, system configuration information, device and application identification numbers, browser type and version, hardware model Internet service provider and/or mobile carrier, and Internet Protocol (IP) address (or proxy server). If you are using our App and Website, we may also collect information about the phone network associated with your mobile device, your mobile device's operating system or platform, the type of mobile device you use, your mobile device's unique device ID, and information about the features of our App and Website you are accessed.

Push Notifications. We may request to send you push notifications regarding your account or certain features of the App. If you wish to opt-out of receiving these types of communications, you may turn them off in your device's settings.

The information is primarily needed to maintain the security and operation of our App and Website, for troubleshooting, and for our internal analytics and reporting purposes.

3. COOKIE FILES

3.1. Cookies are downloaded by your internet browser the first time you visit the Site. The next time you visit the Site from the same device, the cookie and the information stored in it are either sent back to the site that generated it (first-party cookie) or to a different website to which it belongs (third-party cookie).

3.2. There are two main kinds of cookies: session cookies and persistent cookies. Session cookies are erased when you close your browser or mobile application. Persistent cookies remain on your device for a predefined period.

We use «session cookies», «persistent cookies» and other similar technologies ('cookies').

3.3. There are three primary types of cookies:

Session cookies are specific to a particular visit and carry information as you view different pages, so you don't have to re-enter information every time you change pages or attempt to check out. Session cookies expire and delete themselves automatically in a short period of time, like after you leave the Site or when you close your web browser.

Persistent cookies remember certain information about your preferences for viewing the site and allow Grammmms.de to recognize you each time you return. Persistent cookies are stored on your browser cache or mobile device until you choose to delete them, and otherwise typically delete themselves at expiration.

Third-party cookies are placed by someone other than V-art and may gather browsing activity across multiple websites and across multiple sessions. They are usually a type of persistent cookie and are stored until you delete them, or they expire based on the time period set in each third-party cookie.

Operational cookies

There are some cookies that we have to include in order for certain web pages to function. For this reason, they do not require your consent. In particular:

- authentication cookies,
- technical cookies required by certain IT systems,
- authentication cookies.

When you do this, you accept the associated privacy policy.

Cookies store data about your use, but they are helpful because they allow us to help V-ART function and customize your experience. You can configure your desktop or mobile browser's settings to reflect your preference to accept or reject cookies, including how to handle third-party cookies.

3.4. Consent, contract, and legitimate interests in processing:

Certain Cookie Technologies are employed to make the Site function for its intended purpose and are provided based on contractual necessity based on your agreement with Grammmms.de to perform the services, you have requested. These include the functions strictly necessary to the service noted above.

Our EU/GDPR Cookie Bar shows our Site visitors a GDPR friendly cookie bar banner that informs you that our website uses cookies and allows you to view our Privacy Policy. As soon as you agree to your terms, the banner disappears automatically!

By choosing to use our Services after having been notified of our use of Cookie Technologies in the ways described in this Policy, and, in applicable jurisdictions, through notice and unambiguous acknowledgment of your consent, you agree to such use. More information is laid out in our Privacy Policy.

3.5. Managing your cookie technology preferences:

Opt-in and Opt-out for Browsers

In addition, when you use Grammmms.de via a browser, you can change your web browser's settings to reflect your cookie preferences. Each browser is a little different, but usually, these settings are under the "options" or "preferences" menu.

If you reject or block all cookies in your browser settings, you will not be able to take advantage of V-art's Services as some cookies are necessary for the Site to function properly.

Mobile and Third-Party Device Opt-out

If you access V-Art through the Mobile, you may also control interest-based advertising on an iOS or Android device.

For third-party IoT devices such as voice-activated assistants or smart TVs, consult the manufacturer and/or service provider for the opt-out mechanism for their respective devices and services.

4. CONTROL OVER PERSONAL DATA

4.1. We know that Users of our Site value control over their personal information, so V-art gives you the opportunity to provide, edit or delete certain information, and also choose how we will inform you.

4.2. You can also monitor the receipt of messages from V-art using tools in e-mails. V-art can send you messages about services or our activities. Some of these messages are necessary since they are service messages (for example, organizational or legal notices). Others are not mandatory messages, for example, newsletters.

4.3. The App and Website may contain advertisements from third parties that are not affiliated with us and which may link to other websites, online services, or mobile applications. We cannot guarantee the safety and privacy of data you provide to any third parties. Any data collected by third parties is not covered by this privacy notice. We are not responsible for the content or privacy and security practices and policies of any third parties, including other websites, services, or applications that may be linked to or from the App and Website. You should review the policies of such third parties and contact them directly to respond to your questions.

4.4. We do not knowingly solicit data from or market to children under 18 years of age. By using the App and Website, you represent that you are at least 18 or that you are the parent or guardian of such a minor and consent to such minor dependent's use of the App and Website. If we learn that personal information from users less than 18 years of age has been collected, we will deactivate the account and take reasonable measures to promptly delete such data from our records. If you become aware of any data we may have collected from children under the age of 18, please contact us at info@v-art.digital.

5. ИСПОЛЬЗОВАНИЕ, ОБМЕН И РАСКРЫТИЕ ИНФОРМАЦИИ

5.1. When you use the V-art, we collect, use, share and otherwise process your personal information, as described in this Policy. We may process or share your data that we hold based on the following legal basis:

Consent: We may process your data if you have given us specific consent to use your personal information for a specific purpose.

Legitimate Interests: We may process your data when it is reasonably necessary to achieve our legitimate business interests.

Performance of a Contract: Where we have entered into a contract with you, we may process your personal information to fulfill the terms of our contract.

Legal Obligations: We may disclose your information where we are legally required to do so to comply with applicable law, governmental requests, a judicial proceeding, court order, or legal processes, such as in response to a court order or a subpoena (including in response to public authorities to meet national security or law enforcement requirements).

Vital Interests: We may disclose your information where we believe it is necessary to investigate, prevent, or take action regarding potential violations of our policies, suspected fraud, situations involving potential threats to the safety of any person, illegal activities, or as evidence in litigation in which we are involved.

5.2. More specifically, we may need to process your data or share your personal information in the following situations:

Business Transfers. We may share or transfer your information in connection with, or during negotiations of, any merger, sale of company assets, financing, or acquisition of all or a portion of our business to another company.

Affiliates. We may share your information with our affiliates, in which case we will require those affiliates to honor this privacy notice. Affiliates include our parent company and any subsidiaries, joint venture partners, or other companies that we control or that are under common control with us.

Business Partners. We may share your information with our business partners to offer you certain products, services, or promotions.

5.3. Our App and Website offer you the ability to register and login using your third-party social media account details (like your Facebook or Twitter logins). Where you choose to do this, we will receive certain profile information about you from your social media provider. The profile Information we receive may vary depending on the social media provider concerned, but will often include your name, email address, friends list, profile picture as well as other information you choose to make public on such social media platform.

We will use the information we receive only for the purposes that are described in this privacy notice or that are otherwise made clear to you on the relevant App and Website. Please note that we do not control, and are not responsible for, other uses of your personal information by your third-party social media provider. We recommend that you review their privacy notice to understand how they collect, use and share your personal information, and how you can set your privacy preferences on their sites and apps.

5.4. We inform you that your information may be transferred to, stored, and processed by us in our facilities and by those third parties with whom we may share your personal information, including but not limited: to Google LLC, 1600 Amphitheater Parkway, Mountain View, CA 94043 (servers are rented by us at Council Bluffs, Iowa, USA).

5.5. V-ART does not control the privacy policy of third parties, including other members who sell using users' services or API. V-ART is not responsible for maintaining the confidentiality or security of these sellers, API users, or other websites on the Internet, even related to or from the Services. We recommend that you read the privacy policy and ask questions to third parties before disclosing your personal information. For the purposes of European law, these vendors, and API users, are independent data controllers.

6. SECURITY MEASURES

6.1. We realize that individuals trust us to protect their personal information. We maintain reasonable and appropriate physical, electronic and procedural safeguards designed to help protect your personal information. While we attempt to protect your personal information in our possession, no method of transmission over the internet, or security system is perfect, and we cannot promise that information about you will remain secure in all circumstances.

6.2. We believe strongly in protecting our customers' personal data, and understand that doing so is critical to help us preserve the trust and confidence in our Site. GDPR-compliant features are built into the V-art platform, including features to enable us to offer our customers transparency into and control over their personal data, and technical measures to ensure that our customers' personal data is protected as it crosses borders.

6.3. You must protect against unauthorized access to your account and information by choosing your password carefully and by keeping your password and computer secure, such as by signing out after using the Services. We offer advanced security features and settings for users, such as two-factor authentication for signing in, and sign-in history and notifications; you can view more information in your account settings.

7. DATA STORAGE

7.1. V-ART will retain your information only as long as it is necessary for the purposes set forth in this policy or for providing you with the services. If you no longer want V-ART to use your information to provide you with the services, you can write us a request to delete your personal information. We also store log files for internal analysis. These log files are usually stored for a short period of time, except when they are used to ensure the security of the Site, to improve the functionality of the Site, or we are legally bound to keep them for longer periods of time.

8. YOUR RIGHTS OVER YOUR INFORMATION

8.1. Certain privacy laws around the world, including the European General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA), provide users with rights related to their personal information. Consistent with those laws, V-Art gives you the choice of accessing, editing, or removing certain information, as well as choices about how we contact you. While some of these rights apply generally, certain rights apply in limited cases.

Right to Access & Portability: You can access certain personal information associated with your account by visiting your account privacy settings. You can request a copy of your personal information in an easily accessible format and information explaining how that information is used.

Right to Correction: You are entitled to request that we rectify inaccurate information about you. By visiting your account settings, you can correct and change certain personal information associated with your account.

Right to Restrict Processing: In certain cases, where we process your information, you may also have the right to restrict or limit the ways in which we use your personal information.

Right to Deletion: In certain circumstances, you are entitled to request the deletion of your personal information, except information we are required to retain by law, or regulation, or to protect the safety, security, and integrity of V-Art.

Right to Object: If we process your information based on our legitimate interests as explained above, or in the public interest, you can object to this processing in certain circumstances. In such cases, we will cease processing your information unless we have compelling legitimate grounds to continue processing or where it is needed for legal reasons. Where we use your personal data for direct marketing purposes, you can object to using the unsubscribe link in such communications or changing your account email settings.

Right to Withdraw Consent: Where we rely on consent, you can choose to withdraw your consent to our processing of your information using specific features provided to enable you to withdraw consent, like an email unsubscribe link or your account privacy preferences. If you have consented to share your precise device location details but would no longer like to continue sharing that information with us, you can revoke your consent to the sharing of that information through the settings on your mobile device. This is without prejudice to your right to generally permanently close your account and delete your personal information.

8.2. You have certain rights regarding your information, which we process. If you want to manage, modify, restrict or delete your personal information, you can do so by contacting us. Upon request, V-art will provide you with information on whether we retain your personal information. We will respond to your request within a reasonable time.

Please note that if you send us a request relating to your personal information, we have to make sure that it is you before we can respond. To do so, we may ask to see documentation verifying your identity, which we will discard after verification.

If you are not happy with our response to a request, you can contact us to resolve the issue. You also have the right to contact your local data protection or privacy authority at any time.

8.3. Limiting the use of, or deleting, your personal information may impact features and uses that rely on that information. However, we will not discriminate against you for exercising any of your rights, including otherwise denying you goods or services, providing you with a different level or quality of services, or charging you different prices or rates for services.
